Left Drowning by Jessica Park was superb! A reawakening, healing, spectacularly freeing story. The chance encounter is impactful. It was beautiful to see a reinvigorated Blythe; a woman accustomed to years of self-loathing and loss. Chris' past, though sparsely detailed, is pure inspiration for Blythe.

Left Drowning is not just a simple love story, but about finding your way and learning to live again. Blythe has spent the last four years in a fog, wrapped up in the past and struggling to breathe. She is not living, simply floating through the days, unable to escape her tragic past. Fine, fine.
