Roman Missal vs Sacramentary - Catholic Answers Forums

Most Roman Catholics appear not to be aware that in 1998 there was an excellent new English translation of the Roman Missal. The first translation had been released in 1973. In in the mid 1980s translation work began again. It was to be more accurate. There was international cooperation among bishops, scholars, liturgists, Latinists, and other experts.

Failed 1998 English Missal translation | Liturgy

This translation received an overwhelmingly positive response from a September 2012 CARA study, which found that 7 in 10 Catholics feel the new translation is "a good thing." Yet, when reading certain publications, one gets the sense that every Catholic in the world is up-in-arms about the present translation.

Is the 1998 ICEL Missal Translation Worth Another Look?

Obviously, the use of two translations simultaneously is not an ideal situation. I would propose that once the adapted 1998 Sacramentary translation was introduced this would be followed by a period of stability. Then a new translation could be prepared that could take the best of both the 2011 and 1998 versions.
