The Trouble With Flirting Claire

THE TROUBLE WITH FLIRTING, in a word, is adorable. Franny's just your average teenager who happens to have kind of a knack for acting but hasn't done much with it since 8th grade. She needs to get a job for the summer so the closest she gets to acting is working for her aunt as a seamstress for a summer acting program.

The Trouble with Flirting by Claire LaZebnik

The Trouble with Flirting tells the story of Franny, a lower middle-class girl who has always lived in an upper class world at her school. She manages to navigate the differences in social standing fairly well. Now she finds herself at the prestigious Mansfield Theater Camp, an exclusive high school camp for the best of the best of actors.
